G.Lavis

The Monmouthshire-born player had made his debut in 1928 as a right-handed batsman and seam bowler, and became a regular member of the side in the early 1930`s. His finest hour as a player came in 1934 when he hit a career best 154 against Worcestershire in 1934, and shared in a partnership of 236 for the fourth wicket with Cyril Smart. However, he had rather modest season with bat and ball in 1936 and again in 1937, and left the county`s playing staff to pursue a playing and coaching career in Scotland. Lavis subsequently played for Dundee and Forfarshire in 1938 and 1939, before joining the joining the R.A.F. during the Second World War.....

....With Glamorgan re-building after the War, Johnnie Clay persuaded Lavis to return to Glamorgan as the club`s coach, and with the club also being short of players, Lavis also agreed to turn out for the county again. He played his final game for the club in 1949 and was awarded a Testimonial in 1950

Benefit Match Scorecard -Left

August 7th George Lavis XI 179 all out. Abergavenny 129 all out. The highlight of the season was the Benefit Match for George Lavis who had played for Glamorgan from 1928 until after the Second World War, when from 1946 Lavis acted as Glamorgan`s coach. Many young players duly benefitted from his wise words and the long hours of patient guidance in the club`s indoor school at Neath, and the nets in corridor of the North Stand at the Arms Park.

The opening pair put on 116 and Crickhowell tried 6 bowlers.

The seconds 85-6 drew with Bulmers 158 and then 150 all out drew with Crickhowell 133-5. Stan Hall and J.R.Godfrey batting well.

The avenue road ground has stood up well to the demands put on it this season. With heavy rain softening it like a sponge the ground has been susceptible to unusual wear and tear and in patches mud has replaced grass yet by changing the wicket and nursing the ground those responsible for looking after the playing pitch have managed to overcome the damage inflicted by the weather and allowed more games to be played than might have been thought possible.

August 27th Abergavenny were reduced to 26-6 against Brecon and finished on 120-8 declared Syd Stock (40) and W.Williams (30) Brecon forced a draw after it was agreed to extend the finishing time by 15 mins and with 12 minutes to go Brecon needed 31, but could only draw finishing on 105. ### Bowler and Batsman

Most people know Harold Sadler as Abergavenny opening bat, but in a recent match at Harrogate where he is taking a Police Instruction Training Course he showed his prowess as a bowler taking 5 for 7. Does Abergavenny need a new demon bowler? Come Home Harold Come Home !!
