GLAMORGAN v LEICESTERSHIRE

Date: 5/6/7 August 1987

At: Abergavenny

Umpires: B. Leadbeater, R.A. White

Toss won by: Glamorgan

Result: Match drawn

Scorers: B.T. Denning, G.R. Blackburn

There was a disappointing end to this game when Peter Willey abandoned his side's run chase with only five wickets down. The Butcher brothers (Alan for Glamorgan, and Ian for Leicestershire) were the main rungetters for their respective sides. Alan scored masterly 135 for Glamorgan and Leicestershire declared in arrears. On a good wicket and a fast outfield, Glamorgan set the visitors to win at around 5.5 an over. They were given an excellent start by Butcher and Briers and an exciting finish looked likely until the fifth wicket fell. It was difficult to understand Willey's tactics as Leicestershire were in contention for the Championship and a Glamorgan win wouldn't have affected their chances at all.
